

TOURISM

A woman with long dark hair, wearing sunglasses, a grey cardigan, and denim shorts, sits cross-legged in the front of a wooden boat. Her arms are outstretched to the sides. The boat is on a body of water, surrounded by lush green trees and steep, rocky cliffs. The sky is clear and blue. A large, semi-circular purple graphic element is on the left side of the image.

Certificate in Tourism

Your career in tourism is now within reach and within budget

The tourism industry encompasses the provision of all those services used by people when travelling away from home, including booking services, transport, accommodation, tourist retail outlets and attractions. Tourists travel to almost every country in the globe, looking for adventure, recreation and entertainment. They seek both new and familiar experiences, both close to home and far abroad. Some travel independently, others in organised groups. Some look for security, others prefer their travel spiced with excitement and danger.

This course provides a foundation for further learning in any or all of these areas, whether on the job or through formal studies.

Did you know?

The Trevi Fountain in Rome is one of their most famous attractions and is a definite tourist hotspot. It's tradition that visitors toss a coin into the Trevi Fountain but why? Well, there is actually three popular reasons why people do this: to ensure a return trip to Rome; to find love in Rome; to marry in Rome.
